

Concrete Delivery Professional Certification Frequently Asked Questions

- Who can take the course? Any Ready-Mixed Concrete Truck Driver
- Who does the Certification belong to? The certification is given to the driver
- How long is the Certification good for? Five Years
- Is there a minimum number of hours for the driver pre-qualification? Yes – 1000 hours of experience without any moving violations or at fault accidents for the past 12 months before the driver can be certified. The driver will need to submit a pledge form attesting to their safe and clean driving record and promising to remain drug and alcohol free when on duty.
- Who verifies the number of hours? The driver's employer signs the pledge form.
- Can a company have their own in-house trainers? No but they can certainly accompany their drivers through their course to complement some of the learning skills with examples from past history of their business.
- What resource material is available? The majority of the materials are presented in detail in the online program with supplemental reading materials downloadable from the site.
- Is there an examination? Yes. There's a written exam at the end of each module plus a virtual vehicle walk around exam.
- How long is the course? The 5 modules take 11 hours to complete.
- How do drivers access the course? By registering on our site. Once payment is confirmed, an access key is provided to the driver with a link to the training site.
- Why should my driver be certified? It offers excellent training and support to your employees and certification of their chosen profession as a CDP. In some instances it may mean reduced insurance premiums for your business.
- Who controls the examinations? The exams are contained within the program and graded automatically upon completion. Concrete Alberta will maintain copy of the final driver's pledge and a list of certified drivers.
- Is this program mandatory part of membership? No, it is voluntary
- Is there an ID card? There is a wallet card issued with the final certificate.
- What is the cost? \$250.00/student for member company employees and \$350/student for non-member company drivers.